LAYOUT

Everything inside, everything at hand.

Radio, telephony, desk units and incident management in one case – everything at hand on the front of the case.

Example fit-out, front of the case with radios.

- Mobile and flexible: usable anywhere as a case.
- The fit-out can be adapted, radios in type and number.
- The proven REICHERT desk units are part of the fit-out.

FIT-OUT

Put together as required.

Mobile and flexible solutions are becoming more important in everyday rescue situations and at large events.

Example fit-out, front and back of the case.

- DECT telephony in the case.
- REICHERT desk units, e.g. UniKey-TS2.
- EMMA on browser-capable devices for incident management.
- Networked with digiRap: several cases as one network with many more radios.
